Private Hire Terms and Conditions

To secure your chosen date we require a 25% non-refundable deposit paid upfront. The remaining balance is due 4 weeks prior to your event.

Cancellation terms: If for any reason, Becketts Farm are forced to cancel your event owing to reasons out of our control, a reschedule and full refund will be offered on any moneys paid. If you cancel your event within 28 days of your event, you will be responsible for covering the full costs of the party and a refund will not be given.

Considering the ongoing Covid-19 pandemic, if any government restrictions are brought into force which prevent your party going ahead as previously planned, we will work with you to either reschedule or offer a full refund on any moneys paid with no quibble.

Considering the ongoing Covid-19 pandemic, you agree to help us adhere to current social distancing measures as laid out by the UK government at the time of your event.

Any entertainment which you source yourself must be covered by appropriate public liability insurance. You are responsible for checking this, and we may ask to see proof from your supplier.

We cannot allow any external catering to be brought in for the party. All foods must be supplied by Becketts Farm. This is excepting celebration cakes.

As a licensed venue your guests will be expected to show a valid form of ID when purchasing alcohol if asked by our bar staff.

Venue hire is free for any bookings whereby at least £1000 has been spent on food for guests. In any instances where this is not the case, venue hire priced separately at £500.
